Extension Offerings

The offerings of the Division of Extension are of two general types as follows:

A. Extension work by class instruction in which the teacher meets the classes at some study center provided by the class.

B. Extension work by correspondence in which the student works out written assignments which are sent by mail to the instructor and graded by him and returned to the student.

The work of the Extension Department is organized to conform to the regulations of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the regulations of the National Extension Association of Teachers Colleges.

Extension Class Study

1. The Mississippi Southern College is anxious to serve the Teachers of Mississippi through the extension classes. Arrangements have been made to offer by extension any course included in the regular college schedule on condition that satisfactory library and laboratory facilities are available. In the Department of Health, English, Education, Psychology, History, and Social Science, it is possible to offer a number of courses without special library arrangements other than those available through the College. Those interested in arranging for extension classes in centers convenient for them should write to the Director of Extension.

2. Any person qualified to profit by an extension course may be admitted to the classes for non-credit study. However, those who expect college credit for a course must meet regular admission requirements.

3. Extension classes spend the same number of hours in recitation as are required for the same course taken in residence. No extension class may meet for more than sixteen hours in one week, or four hours in one day. No extension course may continue after the opening of the second term of the spring quarter.

Homecoming Day

At Mississippi Southern College

OCTOBER 26th, 1940

The activities planned for Homecoming Day, October 26th, 1940 are the most colorful to ever be held on the campus in the history of the institution. A large number of old graduates, former students, and friends are planning to spend the day on the campus. During the day they will have the privilege of inspecting the old buildings, and the NEW JOE COOK MEMORIAL LIBRARY which has recently been constructed, also the new stadium-dormitory.

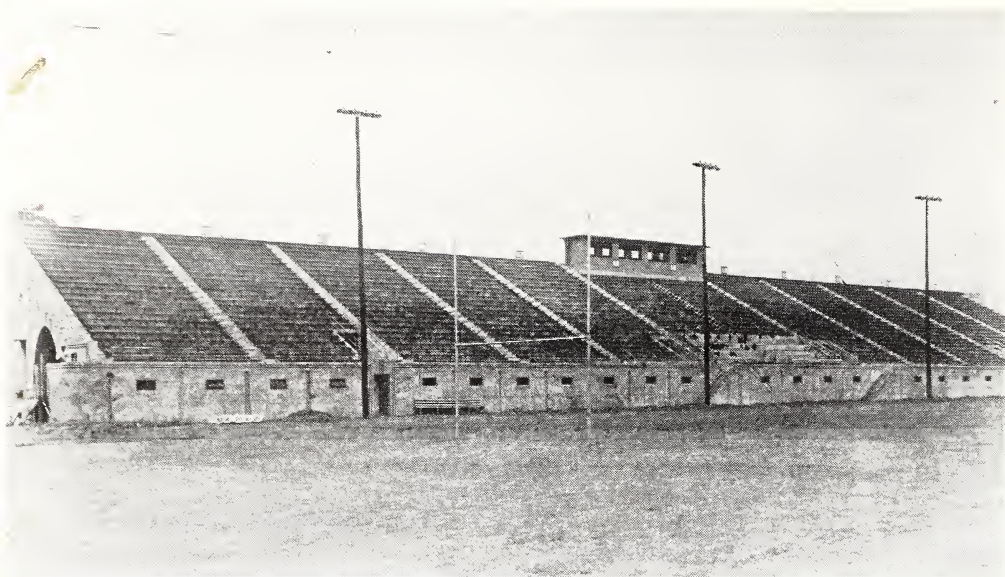

In addition to old graduates and former students, invitations have been extended to all state officials, Legislators, and the Governor to visit the college on this day.

The program as set up today is as follows:

- 9:00-12:00.....Registration. Lobby of President's Office.
- 9:00-12:00.....Inspection of Old and New Buildings.
- 10:30 Parade
- 11:30 Meeting of the Alumni Council. Office of
